To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that Miss. Harsha Rathi has completed her internship under me for 60 days successfully. She was assigned to execute the different levels of creating a designer ensemble and learning the processes involved. In this period she has undergone the vigorous training which involved co-coordinating and understanding the fashion shoots, press shoot, shows and different promos which are essential part of a designer's organization. She was also involved in India mens style week and Presidency correctional home showcase along with Baluchari Handloom project.

I hope she achieves the goals which she has set in her life.

Wishing her all the best and success in life.
